NATIONAL MINORITY

DONOR AWARENESS WEEK

Join Secretary of State Jesse White at a health fair to raise awareness about the importance of organ/tissue donation.

Although Illinois has reached a milestone of 6.2 million people registered as organ/tissue donors, there is still a need for more donors, especially among minorities. In Illinois, minorities make up half of the approximately 4,700 men, women and children currently awaiting a lifesaving transplant.

AUGUST 1, 2017
