Jesse White Joined More than 400 Living Donors, Sets Guinness World Record

A Guinness World Record was announced this week for a historic event that Illinois Secretary of State Jesse White attended in April. White joined with a total of 432 living donors who set a mark recognized by Guinness World Records for the largest group of living donors gathered together at The Bean in Millennium Park. White, head of the state's Organ/Tissue Donor Registry was with the group on April 21, 2018. Living donors came from 39 states and three countries. White encourages people to join the state's organ/tissue registry at www.LifeGoesOn.com.
